

My Former Corporate Lawyer Bill Doogue who I & My Company have used in the past for "Only Corporate Matters". Bill & I had Many, Many Face To Face Meetings. He was more like a friend to me, share with me his problems lol.

Is now defending The ISIS Brides, Holy Shit... Bill what the hell happened.

I just want to state on record if it was me, I would never have taken that case up for Defending the ISIS Brides & Bill knows that about me. I seriously don't understand why, media attention, fame mate... I can talk to him like that... I'm just disgusted not happy with this news. He's not only lost my Business not that I need a lawyer now but my Friendship as well.
