Dear High Court Registry,

Regarding Notification of Further Evidentiary Material and Intended Constitutional Proceedings

I write further to my previous correspondence and the accompanying document provided therewith for the purpose of clarification and contextual assistance.

I respectfully wish to place on record that I am presently engaged in obtaining additional documentary and evidentiary material from several major telecommunications providers. The documentation being sought is relevant to matters presently under consideration and is expected to assist in establishing a comprehensive factual chronology of events, together with issues concerning communications, records management, service administration, and related evidentiary circumstances.

As the Court will be aware from the proceedings entitled In the Matter of an Application by Gerrard Tate for Leave to Issue or File (C12-2026) [2026] HCASJ 26, I have continued to undertake substantial investigations and evidence gathering to ensure that any future filings are supported by the fullest available documentary record. The additional material presently being sought is considered necessary to properly particularise matters of fact and law that may arise in subsequent proceedings.

For the avoidance of doubt, I anticipate that, upon receipt and review of the outstanding telecommunications records and associated documentation, I will be in a position to lodge a number of constitutional applications and prerogative writ proceedings. Such proceedings may include, where appropriate and as supported by the evidence, applications invoking the original jurisdiction of the High Court pursuant to sections 75 and 76 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution, together with applications seeking relief in the nature of mandamus, prohibition, certiorari, injunction, or other constitutional remedies recognised by law.

Further, I anticipate that applications may subsequently be made for the issuance of subpoenas and associated compulsory processes in accordance with the High Court Rules 2004 (Cth) and any other relevant legislative or procedural authority. Such applications will be directed toward obtaining documents and records considered necessary for the proper administration of justice, the determination of constitutional questions, and the resolution of matters arising within the Court's jurisdiction.

In this regard, I respectfully note the importance of maintaining the integrity of the evidentiary record and ensuring procedural fairness consistent with the requirements of the Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth), the High Court of Australia Act 1979 (Cth), the principles of natural justice, and the broader requirements of the rule of law.

This correspondence is provided as a courtesy notification to the Registry and to ensure transparency concerning the current status of my document collection process and the anticipated progression of related legal proceedings.

Should any further procedural information be required, I shall provide the same upon request and in accordance with the applicable Rules of Court.

Sincerely,

Gerrard Tate

1st Grandson of Late Colonel Harold Andrew Ralph Tate
